Let us pray.

We beseech thee, Almighty God: look upon the hearty desires of thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of thy majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lesson: Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

In those days, Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian; and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. And the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed. And Moses said, "I will turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."

When the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!"

And he said, "Here am I."

Then he said, "Do not come near; put off your shoes from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, "I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of the taskmasters; I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey."

Then Moses said to God, "If I come to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?"

God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And he said, "Say this to the sons of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Say this to the sons of Israel, 'The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': this is my name for ever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations."

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

The Psalm: Psalm 103 [Benedic, anima mea]

Chant, Stephen Elvey (1805-1860)

Praise the Lord, | O my | soul;

Praise the Lord, | O my | soul:
and for- | get not | all his | benefits.

Who forgiveth | all thy | sin,
and | heal-eth | all · thine in- | firmities;
Who saveth thy life | from des- | truction,

The Lord executeth | righteousness · and | judgment

The Lord is full of com- | passion · and | mercy:

The Epistle: I Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

I want you to know, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same supernatural food and all drank the same supernatural drink. For they drank from the supernatural Rock which followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless with most of them God was not pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

Now these things are warnings for us, not to desire evil as they did, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as a warning, but they were written down for our instruction, upon whom the end of the ages has come. Therefore let any one who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters.
And as the eyes of a maiden: unto the hand of her mistress.
Even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God: until he have mercy upon us.

The Holy Gospel: St. Luke 13:1-9

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

There were some present at that very time who told Jesus of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And he answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered thus? I tell you, No; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish. Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others who dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, No; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. And he said to the vinedresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down; why should it use up the ground?'

"And he answered him, 'Let it alone, sir, this year also, till I dig about it and put on manure. And if it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

Iustitiae Domini

Psalm 19:8, 10, 11

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart:
sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb:
moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Offertory Anthem: Iustitiae Domini

Alessandro Scarlatti (1660-1725)

*Iustitiae Domini rectae, laetificantes corda ;
et iudicia eius dulciora super mel et favum.
Nam servus tuus custodit ea.*

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart
his judgments sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.
For thy servant keeps them.
