V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Lord, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness: that through thy protection she may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lesson: Sirach 35:12c-14, 16-18b

The Lord is the judge, and with him is no partiality. He will not show partiality in the case of a poor man; and he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged. He will not ignore the supplication of the fatherless, nor the widow when she pours out her story.

He whose service is pleasing to the Lord will be accepted, and his prayer will reach to the clouds. The prayer of the humble pierces the clouds, and he will not be consoled until it reaches the Lord; he will not desist until the Most High visits him, and the just judge executes judgment. And the Lord will not delay, neither will he be patient with them.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

I will always give | thanks un-to the | Lord:
 his praise shall | ever · be | in my | mouth.
 My soul shall make her | boast · in the | Lord:
 the humble shall | hear · there-of, | and be | glad.

The countenance of the Lord is against | them that · do | evil:
 to root out the re- | membrance · of them | from the | earth.
 The righteous cry, and the | Lord | heareth them:
 and delivereth them | out of | all their | troubles.

The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a | con-trite | heart:
 and will save such as | be · of an | hum-ble | spirit.
 The Lord delivereth the | souls of · his | servants:
 and all they that put their | trust in · him | shall not · be | destitute.

The Epistle: II Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Beloved, I am already on the point of being sacrificed; the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.

At my first defense no one took my part; all deserted me. May it not be charged against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength to proclaim the word fully, that all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: St. Luke 18:9-14

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that time, Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others: "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.'

"But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!'

"I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

V. The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise be to thee, O Christ.

*Remember me, O Lord, King of all power:
 and put a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in thy sight.*

Bless thou the Lord, O my soul,
 Blessed art thou, O Lord.
 Bless thou the Lord, O my soul,
 Bless the Lord, and forget not all His benefits.
 Bless thou the Lord, O my soul,
 And all that is within me bless His holy name.
 He is full of compassion and mercy,
 Long-suffering and great in goodness.
 He will not always be chiding
 Nor keepeth he his wrath forever.
 Bless thou the Lord, O my soul,
 And all that is within me bless His holy name.
 Blessed art thou, O Lord.

Laudate Dominum omnes gentes
 Laudate eum, omnes populi
