Anthem for Mattins: "Purge Me, O Lord, from All My Sin"

Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

*Purge me, O Lord, from all my sin, and save thou me by faith from ill, that I may rest and dwell with thee upon thy holy blessed hill:
And that done, grant that with true heart I may without hypocrisy affirm the truth, detract no man, but do all things with equity.*

Let us pray.

Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves: keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lesson: Genesis 12:1-4a

In those days, the Lord said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who curses you I will curse; and by you all the families of the earth shall bless themselves."

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him.

V. The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

For the word of the | Lord • is | true:
 and | all • his | works • are | faithful.
 He loveth | righteousness • and | judgment:
 the earth is full of the | good • ness | of • the | Lord.
 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon | them • that | fear him,
 and upon them that | put • their | trust in • his | mercy
 To deliver their | soul • from | death:
 and to | feed them • in the | time • of | dearth.
 Our soul hath patiently | tarri'd • for the | Lord:

The Epistle: II Timothy 1:8b-10

Beloved, take your share of suffering for the Gospel in the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not in virtue of our works but in virtue of his own purpose and the grace which he gave us in Christ Jesus ages ago, and now has manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel.

The Holy Gospel: St. Matthew 17:1-9

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that time, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain apart. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. And Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is well that we are here; if you wish, I will make three booths here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." He was still speaking, when lo, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces, and were filled with awe. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and have no fear." And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Tell no one the vision, until the Son of man is raised from the dead."

Communion Anthem: "Heavenly Light"

Alexander Alexandrovich Kopylov (1854 -1911)

Sent from heaven, thy rays were given on great and small to shine.
O light Divine! May each soul in sorrow's night see the heavenly light.
Thou blessing to all creation, lead us to our salvation.
All those whose feet may falter, lead unto the sacred altar.
O shine from above, Divine Light of love.
Show us the way unto our God, we pray.
Thou our beacon and guide shalt be.
Light Divine, we praise Thee!
