Vidi Aquam: The Celebrant sprinkles the people with the Holy Water, while all sing:

Antiphon. I beheld water flowing from the right side of the temple: | al-le-| luia.

It brought God's | life and | his sal-| vation,
and the people sang in | joy-ful | praise:
alle-| lu-ia, | al-le-| luia.

O give thanks unto the LORD, for | he is | gracious;
because his | mercy · en-| dureth · for | ever.

Let Israel now confess that | he is | gracious,
and that his | mercy · en-| dureth · for | ever.

Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son,
and | to the | Ho-ly | Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev-er | shall be,
world without | end. A-| — | men.

Antiphon. I beheld water flowing from the right side of the temple: | al-le-| luia.

It brought God's | life and | his sal-| vation,
and the people sang in | joy-ful | praise:
alle-| lu-ia, | al-le-| luia.

Having sprinkled the People, the Priest returns to the foot of the altar and with hands joined continues:

Priest: O Lord, show thy mercy upon us. Alleluia.

People: And grant us thy salvation. Alleluia.

Priest: O Lord, hear my prayer.

People: And let my cry come unto thee.

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Priest: Let us pray.

O Lord, holy Father, Almighty, everlasting God, we beseech thee to hear us; and vouchsafe to send thy holy Angel from heaven, to guard and cherish, protect and visit, and evermore defend all who are assembled in this place; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

As newborn babes, alleluia:

Desire ye the sincere milk of the word, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

(Ps.) Sing we merrily unto God, our helper: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

(Bow) Glory be to the Father... (Rise) As it was in the beginning... As newborn babes...

Collect

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Almighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness; that we may always serve thee in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lesson: Acts 2:42-47

The brethren held steadfastly to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers.

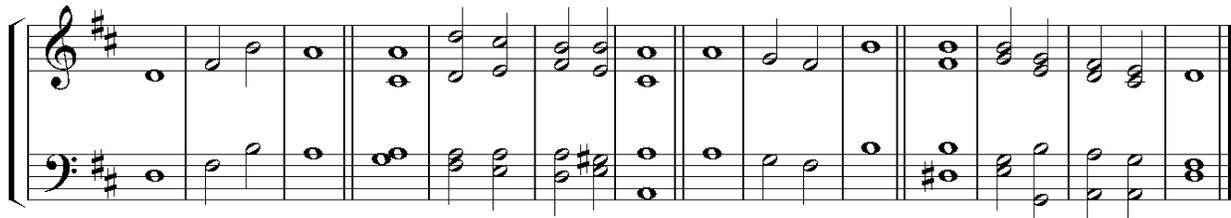

And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common; and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they partook of food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

The Psalm: Psalm 118 [Dicat nunc Israel quoniam]

Chant, Sir Joseph Barnby (1836-1896)

Let Israel now confess that | he is | gracious:
and that his | mercy ·en- | dureth ·for | ever.

Let the house of Aaron | now con- | fess
that his | mercy ·en- | dureth ·for- | ever.

Second half of chant:

Yea, let them now that fear the | Lord con- | fess
that his | mercy ·en- | dureth ·for | ever.

Thou hast thrust sore at me, that | I might | fall:
but the | Lord | was my | help.

The Lord is my | strength, and ·my | song:
and | is be- | come ·my sal- | vation.

Second half of chant:

The voice of joy and health is in the | dwellings ·of the | righteous:
the right hand of the Lord bringeth | migh - ty | things to | pass.

The same stone which the | builders ·re- | fus'd:
is become the | head-stone | in the | corner.

This is the | Lord's | doing:
and it is | marvel-lous | in our | eyes.

Second half of chant:

This is the day which the | Lord hath | made:
we will re- | joice | and be | glad in it.

The Epistle: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and to an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while you may have to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold which though perishable is tested by fire, may redound to praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Without having seen him you love him; though you do not now see him you believe in him and rejoice with unutterable and exalted joy. As the outcome of your faith you obtain the salvation of your souls.

The Holy Gospel: St. John 20:19-31

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint John.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe."

Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing."

Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

Jesus said to him, "You have believed because you have seen me. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

An Act of Spiritual Communion for those who cannot now receive Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

My Jesus, I believe that thou art truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love thee above all things, and I desire to receive thee into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace thee as if thou wert already there and unite myself wholly to thee.
Never permit me to be separated from thee. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

John 20:27

*Reach hither thy hand, and behold the print of the nails, alleluia:
and be not faithless, but believing, alleluia, alleluia.*

Communion Anthem: "Come, Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain"

Reginald Sparshatt Thatcher (1888-1957)

*Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought his Israel into joy from sadness;
'Tis the spring of souls today; Christ has burst His prison,
And from three days' sleep in death as a sun hath risen.*

*Now the queen of seasons, bright with the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts, comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem, who with true affection Welcomes in unwearied strains Jesu's resurrection.*

*Neither might the gates of death, nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal hold Thee as a mortal;
But today amidst the twelve Thou didst stand, bestowing
That Thy peace which evermore passeth human knowing.*
